1. ATTENDANCE POLICY

1.1 Policy Overview

This attendance policy establishes guidelines for employee presence, working hours, and attendance management across all organizational locations. The policy applies to all full-time and part-time employees.

1.2 Working Days and Hours

Full-Time Employees:

- Daily working hours: 8 hours
- Break time: 1 hour (typically lunch)
- Total office time: 9 hours per day

- Weekly working days: 5-6 days (organization-dependent)
- Maximum weekly hours: 48 hours

Part-Time Employees:

- Daily working hours: 4-6 hours (flexible)
- Maximum weekly hours: 33 hours
- Schedule: As defined in employment letter

1.3 Attendance Tracking Methods

Method 1: Biometric System

- Fingerprint/thumb impression at office entry and exit
- Suitable for offices with 10+ employees
- Automated record-keeping
- Data used only for attendance purposes
- Data deleted post-employment

Method 2: Digital Web Check-In/Mobile App

- Web-based or mobile application access
- Employees mark start and end times
- Suitable for remote and small offices
- Applicable for work-from-home scenarios
- System: HRMS or similar platform

Method 3: Manual Attendance Register

- Hard-copy daily sign-in sheets
- Employee and supervisor signatures
- Used when digital systems unavailable
- Monthly submission to HR department
- Scanned copy maintained for records

*Priority of Methods: Biometric > Digital Check-In > Manual Register

1.4 Attendance Rules and Regulations

Grace Period

- Standard grace period: 15 minutes

9. GRIEVANCE RESOLUTION POLICY

9.1 Policy Overview

Definition of Grievance:

- Dissatisfaction of employee based on expectations from organization
- Related to employment terms, working conditions, management interactions
- Can be real or imagined
- Can be minor or major
- Must be addressed for resolution

Objective:

- Speedy resolution of grievances
- Fair and impartial hearing
- Elimination of conflict sources
- Restoration of positive work environment
- Prevention of escalation to serious issues

9.2 General Guidelines

Principles

1. Fair Grievance Procedure:

- Aimed at resolving work-related grievances fairly and swiftly
- Available to all employees (junior to senior)

2. Scope Limitations:

- Does NOT cover: Appeals against disciplinary action (separate process)
- Does NOT cover: Collective wage/salary grievances
- Does NOT cover: Matters outside employment scope

3. Employee Protection:

- Employees may lodge grievances without fear of victimization
- Protection from retaliation assured
- Confidentiality maintained

4. Representation Right:

- Employees entitled to representation
- Can be represented by fellow employee of choice
- Can have witness present

5. Documentation:

- Records maintained for all statements

- Decisions documented
- File kept for reference

Prohibited Actions

- X Victimization of grievance filer
- X Retaliation against complainant
- X Unfair treatment post-grievance
- X Dismissal for filing legitimate grievance
- X Withdrawal of benefits/entitlements

9.3 Grievance Redressal Procedure

Step 1: Contact Reporting Manager

Process:
